

BIOGRAPHY

DR. ERZSÉBET LIPTHAY
DIRECTOR

Co-founder and Director of CRSCOM, co-founder of Pro Arte et Natura Foundation (PAN), and Chairwoman of the Szilágyi Erzsébet Independent Woman's Association, a non-profit charity organisation serving children in need. Co-founder of the Circle of Friends of the Museum of Applied Arts of Hungary. Erzsébet Liphay, a Suma Cum Laude graduate in medicine at the Semmelweis Medical University in Budapest. Since 1990, when Hungary opened to democracy, working in Public Relations, recognised as a well known professional, serving every aspect of communications, especially corporate and image development. During the last two decades, she consolidated excellent connections at local decision making level and at key Hungarian national and regional media.

Her standing for people in need and her systematic work sharing efforts for Conservation of Cultural Heritage and Environmental values are backing her leading position at various non-profit Hungarian civil foundations.

Travelled in principal European countries, USA and Japan. Speaks fluent Hungarian, knowledge of German and English.